When Your Child Is Being Bullied: Real Solutions for Parents, Educators and Professionals

Anti-Bullying List:

Reach Immigrant Parents
Become a Family Counselor
Looking for an RN to BSN?

- Do not tell your child to ignore the bullying
Reassure your child that he/she will be protected and you will not stop until there is a complete solution in place
Document all facts of each instance of bullying
Develop a plan to stop the bullying with the school. Work respectfully and collaboratively, but aggressively with the school to develop a plan. Make certain you, as the parent, lead the solution and play a very active role.
Use all of your community resources:
School social workers/guidance counselors
Teachers
Superintendent
School Board
School nurse
Therapists/psychologists
Coaches
Members of law enforcement
Attorneys

Act quickly, comprehensively and early. The longer the bullying goes on, the more difficult the situation becomes for your child and your family.

There are real solutions that work, be persistent

Never: allow your child to participate in "peer to peer resolution", this only re-victimizes the victim and angers the bully
